

DALHOUSIE CENSUS BE COUNTED

Dalhousie University is committed to equity and diversity in employment. All Dalhousie staff and faculty are asked to complete this survey to help create an accurate picture of our workplace to develop an employment equity plan, which is critical to removing barriers to full and active participation in the workplace and promoting inclusion in our diverse community.

The survey takes only a few minutes of your time. You may self-identify in more than one category. You may decline to answer any or all the questions. All responses to this survey are confidential and will be reported only in summary or aggregate form. While responding to the questions in this survey is voluntary, your responses contribute directly to fulfilling Dalhousie's requirements under the Federal Contractors Program and will be used to inform the application of Dalhousie's Employment Equity Policy.

Banner ID and initials required (ex. B00123456 ABC):

If you do not wish to complete the census, please check this box so that we may record your response.

1. Indigenous Peoples of Turtle Island

In the context of Turtle Island, which spans North America encompassing Canada and the United States, Indigenous Peoples and their descendants are recognized as the original inhabitants. This collective term, and less commonly Aboriginal, includes First Nations, Inuk, and Metis communities, each characterized by distinct languages, cultures, and traditions that vary across Nations, language groups, and regions.

Dalhousie recognizes that false claims of Indigeneity are harmful regardless of intent. Such claims produce an erosion of trust, and can result in the misappropriation of resources that are intended to support Indigenous Peoples. Consultations related to the processes by which Indigenous citizenship/community membership may be affirmed are ongoing at the university.

Do you claim Indigenous identity, citizenship, or membership?

4. Gender Identity & Sexual Orientation

A note about language for the next two questions: Language, particularly about gender identity and sexual orientation, involves social constructs which evolve. The definitions below are not meant to label individuals but are meant to be helpful functional descriptors. They are not standardized and may be used differently by different people.

DALHOUSIE CENSUS BE COUNTED

For this survey, gender identity refers to each person's internal and individual experience of gender. It is their sense of being a woman, man, both, neither or anywhere along or outside of the gender spectrum. You may select multiple options and are strongly encouraged to check all options that you identify with.

How do you describe your current gender identity?

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Agender | <input type="checkbox"/> Non-Binary |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Cisgender (gender identity corresponds to sex assigned at birth) | <input type="checkbox"/> Trans |

| <input type="checkbox"/> Lesbian | <input type="checkbox"/> Prefer not to respond |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Pansexual | <input type="checkbox"/> Not listed (please specify) _____ |

2SLGBTQIA+ is an acronym for two-spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, queer, intersex, and asexual and/or aromantic with the "+" representing the diversity of ways people from equity-deserving groups choose to identify their gender identity and/or sexual orientation.

Do you currently self-identify as a member of 2SLGBTQIA+ communities?

- Yes No Prefer not to respond

5. Self-Identification

Self-identify with Consent: There may be networks, opportunities and/or committee service at Dalhousie that are designated to equity-deserving groups. If you select to self-identify with consent the university may forward additional information for these purposes only.

Self-identify without Consent: There is also the option to self-identify without consent. This means any data produced from the information will not be linked to you without your prior written authorization. This information will be used only in aggregate by the university to assist in assessing and improving services for employees and students.

Are you providing the above self-identification information with consent?

- Yes No Prefer not to respond
