Since the number of qualified applicants to dental school far exceeds the number of positions available in first year, we are anxious to select those individuals whose accomplishments, personal attributes and abilities indicate that they have the greatest potential for dental education and practice.

The following sections are to be completed by the referee. The information in this document will be treated as strictly confidential. The purpose of the reference is to assess the ability of the applicant to undertake professional studies.

NOTE: If you do not know the candidate well enough to make a valid assessment, it would be in the interests of both the candidate and the Admissions Committee for you to decline the invitation to evaluate him/her.

Please indicate with a (√) on the profile below your opinions of this applicant.
