This course will explore some of the most important engagements of modern Western thinkers with various texts and traditions of East and/or South Asian thought, examine the very aspects of Asian thought that intrigued modern Western thinkers, and assess Western values and projects in their lights.

For further information, please contact the Early Modern Studies Programme, 422-1271, ext. 204, www.ukings.ca