Master of Health Administration (MHA)

To inspire students to become tomorrow’s healthcare leaders through the integration of science, practice, and lifelong learning through two specifically designed joint-degree programs: Juris Doctor/Master of Health Administration (JD/MHA) and Master of Nursing/Master of Health Administration (MN/MHA).
Why study Health Administration at Dalhousie?

- CA+HME Accredited
- 800 Alumni Worldwide
- Health Administration Residency Program
- Alumni Mentorship Program
- Inter-professional Health Education Program
- Executive-in-Residence
- MHA+ Certificate in Advanced MHA Studies: Legal Matters in Health Administration

RESEARCH STRENGTHS
- End of Life and Palliative Care
- Global Health
- Pandemic and Health Policy
- Health Policy
- Health Law
- Administrative Databases and Health Record Linkage
- Cancer Control
- Psychology of Decision Making
- Ethical Leadership and Governance
- Performance Management and Measurement
- Organizational Change and Innovation
- Health Reform
- Strategic Planning and Innovation
- Performance Management and Health Outcomes Administration
- Ethics
- Healthcare Financing
- Economic analysis of chronic diseases

POTENTIAL CAREERS
The MHA offers advanced training to enable individuals to assume leadership positions in the private and public healthcare industry.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Same as the general application deadlines outlined by the Faculty of Graduate Studies (applications are accepted for September admission) plus a minimum GMAT score of 550 and a minimum GPA of 3.3.

APPLICATION DEADLINE
June 1st, April 1st for scholarship consideration

CONTACT INFORMATION
902.494.2201
healthadmin@dal.ca
dal.ca/sha